MEMPHIS APPEAL.

THE NATCHEZ COURIER.

Major Giles M. Hillyer has retired from the editorship of the Natchez Courier, and Mississippi journalism loses his ready pen and brilliant abilities. We were prepared to learn that the people of that exhausted and impoverished State are not able to maintain in Natchez a daily journal, in a condition of respectable prosperity. We are sorry to hear that they also lack the disposition. It would indeed be better, and we think wiser, in the people of the South to maintain their own home journals, that are struggling, too often ineffectually, against adversity and discouragement, with meagre subscription lists, and advertising bills unpaid to the amount of thousands, while the editors and proprietors live literally "from hand to mouth," than to help swell the enormous subscription list of the LaCrosse Democrat.

Major Hillyer takes leaves of his readers in the following words:

The Natchez Courier, after this date, passes into other hands. It has had a history and a record for over a third of a century, for upwards of eighteen years of which it has been under the control of the undersigned. He is not ashamed of its political or journalistic career. Educated as an old line Whig, disagreeing during all the troublous times that preceded the civil war, from the Democratic majority, he stood faithful to the Union of the States while there was a Union, and too often incurred censure and rebuke for warning the people that constitutional remedies ought to be exhausted before resorting to measures of more doubtful expedience or result. When different counsels prevailed, he knew no other first allegiance than to the adopted State which protected his fireside and claimed his fealty. During the struggle, he endeavored to do his duty with those who were contending for the social institutions and political existence of the South. Returning after over four years absence from his home, he again took charge of the old paper. He parts with it now with feelings of pain and regret, and takes his leave of Mississippi journalism. He does not find in an impoverished community the disposition and ability that can aid him in restoring the Courier to the prosperous condition it had before its recent reverses and disasters. Others may be more fortunate; he trusts they will be. His successors are practical printers, men of worth and experience, and he gives to them all the good will, personal and business, that the paper and office have long enjoyed, and earnestly hopes that they may reap for themselves and theirs a reputation and a return that he thinks the Courier had deserved and will continue to merit.

THE SOLDIERS' VOTE—RADICAL IMPUDENCE.

Rules should work both ways, for we are told that "it is a bad rule that will not work both ways." They have held a municipal election at Washington. Despite the numerous and most atrocious frauds practised by them, the Radicals claim that the Democratic majority is unfair, because the soldiers voted that ticket. How can they look soldiers in the face, after desiring to deprive them of the right of suffrage, accorded to negroes in the national metropolis? Look at the consummate impudence and rascality of the thing. They base large calculations on "the soldiers' vote" in the coming Presidential contest, (if it can be said to amount to that,) and yet in an election of the Mayor of the Federal City, they insist the Democracy was defeated because their majority was obtained by the soldiers' vote. The Radicals impudently claim a triumph. The National Intelligencer of the 9th says:

They base their claims upon the illegality of the soldiers' vote. Well, let that go to the country, that soldiers, who have fought the battles of the Union and survived them—men who have been ready to give their blood and their lives in the defense of the flag—men who have families here, and pay taxes here, and have no other home, are, by Radical logic, to be excluded from the right of suffrage, while the most worthless negro who can be brought here from a Maryland or Virginia plantation, for fifteen days, can be allowed to vote for those who are to levy taxes upon the soldier.

It has come to this, that negro suffrage is better than soldier suffrage in the estimation of the leaders of Radicalism. Let the soldiers throughout the land remember that their comrades here have been, by the Radical leaders, placed below the most ignorant negro supported by the Freedmen's Bureau. The negroes are allowed to vote, whether of age or under age, without owning any stake in the community rather than the cost of his being brought here to vote; while the enlisted soldier, all scarred over in the battles of the Union, who happens to have a home and a family here who has no other home—simply because he is an enlisted soldier, is denied the privilege to vote upon the selection of those who are to tax his property, and is required to stand idly by while ignorant and imported negroes parcel out and levy taxes upon what little he may have gathered together.

This is the sum and substance of the argument. It is not good in law, because the statute disfranchising the soldiers did not take effect until the registry was completed, and no judge has a right to go behind that registration. Otherwise, it will be shown that there were hundreds of negroes voted upon the registry who never were, and are not now, residents of the District of Columbia. The rule, if adopted, must be made applicable to all.

A WASHINGTON dispatch to the Philadelphia Inquirer asserts that certain parties in Washington, acting in concert with Mr. Thornton, the British Minister, are endeavoring to engineer a bill through Congress to reduce the duty on bituminous coal from Nova Scotia to a merely nominal rate, so that Maryland and Pennsylvania coal cannot compete with it, and which, of course, would give to Nova Scotia a monopoly, or nearly so, of the sea coast trade.

Well, the party in the ascendant in Congress, should understand their duty. Having carried out the will of their British masters, to the destruction of the best interests of their country, the prostration of business, and the eternal blotting out of all hope of commercial prosperity, and greatly endangering the existence of the Government itself, it should not baulk at so trivial a step as breaking down and rendering of no avail the natural resources of a province or two!

SHIP TIMBER.

The Baltimore Commercial of the 8th gives the following instance of the strange attraction of trade, which with capillary influence climbs even the steep eminences which would be naturally regarded as obstructions. The Commercial says:

A singular flowing back of one of the great currents of trade is indicated by the fact that during the present month eight large vessels have cleared at the port of Charleston, loaded with lumber for Maine. This is "carrying coals to Newcastle," yet the white oak of South Carolina is superior for ship timber to any tree in the forests of Maine, while the roots of the yellow pine are far better than those of the tamarack for ship's knees both in shape and durability.

CONDENSED DECISIONS OF THE SUPREME COURT.

Brownsville, June Term, 1868.

BY H. CLAY KING, ESQ.

Venable vs. Snoddy.

This cause was decided at a former day of the term. It was a bill in Chancery to set aside the satisfaction of executions from a Justice of the Peace on the ground that the payment to the officer who satisfied the executions, was in Confederate money. In the answer of the defendants, they inserted a demurrer to the jurisdiction of the Court.

Per curiam.—Smith, Judge.—The demurrer to the jurisdiction being inserted in the answer, is a nullity; and the defendants having answered, submit to the jurisdiction thereby. And, such being the case, it is not now decided whether Chancery has, properly, jurisdiction of such a case or not.

No. 20.—Skipwith vs. Johnson.

Facts: Johnson recovered judgment in forcible entry and detainer before a Justice of the Peace. Skipwith prosecuted certiorari to the Circuit Court, executing bond with security for one year's rent under the Code. The case not being tried within the year, the Court required Skipwith to execute a new bond and security for another year's rent, which not being done, the Court dismissed the certiorari.

Held: That the Code does not require, in such a case, any other bond than the one to secure one year's rent, and to require an additional and different one is error, for which a reversal will be had.

No. 21.—Williams vs. Wickersham.

Facts: Williams had judgment and execution against Wickersham. The Constable in whose hands the fi. fa. was placed, endorsed on the same one day after the return day, "satisfied," and placed the same among the papers. Application was made to the Justice, (who was the Constable who had made execution, having been since elected to the office), for another fi. fa. on the judgment, on the ground that the payment was in Confederate money, and that the entry of satisfaction on the fi. fa. was a nullity. And, this application being refused, this mandamus was sought against the Justice.

Held: 1. That under the facts of this case, the entry of satisfaction is not held as a nullity for all purposes. The act may have been done while the execution was in life, although the endorsement was made afterwards.

2. The remedy in this case is not by mandamus—the remedy involving something more than a mere ministerial act.

No. 22.—Williams vs. Inman, Galt & Co.

The plaintiff sued the defendants on this paper: "Received of Inman, Galt & Co. $407, to be remitted to them at Louisville, Ky." There was judgment final by default.

Held: That this paper does not, under the Code, bear interest of itself, and a jury is necessary to assess the damages.

No. 23.—Gates & Wood vs. Holding.

This Court will not supersede an interlocutory order of a Chancellor dissolving an injunction, where the complainant's right to relief is doubtful.

State Docket of the Supreme Court.

The following are the causes on the State docket of the Supreme Court at Brownsville, from the Circuit Courts of Shelby, Fayette, Carroll and Henry counties, and from the Criminal Court of Memphis. This docket will be called peremptorily on Monday, the 15th inst., and will be disposed of on the first call, in the order as the causes are stated below:

1. Holloway vs. The State.
2. Thompson vs. The State.
3. Nokes vs. The State.
4. Wickham vs. The State.
5. Anderson vs. The State.
6. Morton vs. The State.
7. Wynne vs. The State.
8. Myers vs. The State.
9. Thompson vs. The State.
10. Galloway vs. The State.
11. Galloway vs. The State.
12. Bly vs. The State.
13. The State vs. Conner.

THE LAND OF THE HIGHER CIVILIZATION.

That region of the United States which has taken the morals of the whole country into its especial keeping, and of whose piety Tilton and Wendell Phillips are the mouth-pieces, has added another article to its list of exports to Canada. Officers of the Sanitary Association of Montreal, Canada, have published a report of the operations of the Foundling Hospital of that city, which is under the management of the Grey Sisters. These officers report that the whole number of children received at the hospital during the year was 652, of whom 413 were born in Montreal, and the remainder in other places, 29 being sent from the United States. The accounts of the treatment of some of those from the United States are revolting. The report says: "One was sent in a carpet bag, another in a basket, one at the bottom of a waterbucket, one strongly nailed up in a box, two squeezed and bruised, and another with a pin stuck through its flesh."

POPULAR WORKS ON FREEMASONRY

PUBLISHED BY THE

MASONIC PUBLISHING

—AND—

MANUFACTURING COMPANY,

432 Broome Street, New York.

LITURGY OF THE ANCIENT AND Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, for the Southern Jurisdiction of the United States. By Albert Pike, 33d. and Sov. Grand Commander. 8vo. Splendidly illustrated with Chromo-lithographic plates and numerous wood engravings, Part II, 4th to 14th degree, $5 00.

☞ It would perhaps seem unnecessary after giving the above title-page to say anything further in the way of recommendation. The name of the author should of itself be a sufficient guarantee of its worth. Ill. Bro. Pike, by his learning and contributions has done as much to elevate the standard of Masonic literature and extend a knowledge of its symbolism, ethics and history as any other living man. This book, in its particular department, may justly be considered a master-piece, embracing matter not only useful to the Masonic student of every grade, but to men of science in the highest literary field of the present age. Notwithstanding this book has been preceded by several of a similar character, yet to Bro. Pike alone is due the honor of first exploring this branch of Masonic literature and of opening to the admiration of the Craft its vast storehouse of knowledge and beauty. This work contains the degrees of the Ancient and Accepted Rite from the fourteenth to the thirty-third inclusive, is elegantly illustrated with chromo-lithograph engravings, showing all the jewels, costume, furniture, etc., belonging to each degree. No expense has been spared in getting it up, and it is without doubt the most elegant, as well as one of the most useful books, ever offered to the Fraternity.

Published and for sale by the Masonic Publishing and Manufacturing Company, 432 Broome street, New York, and Booksellers generally in the United States.

☞ Copies of the above for the Memphis Brethren are ready for delivery at the Editorial Rooms of the APPEAL, 14 Jefferson street, up-stairs. 1w jan29

MEMPHIS APPEAL.

ALBERT PIKE & CO.

Vera Atque Honesta Dicere.

For President of the United States,

ANDREW JOHNSON,

OF TENNESSEE.

[Subject only to the decision of the National Democratic Conservative Convention.]

PLATFORM OF THE TENNESSEE DEMOCRACY.

1st. The Conservative men of Tennessee, putting aside all questions decided by the war, accept the title of 'Democrats,' and formally unite themselves with the Democratic party as it now exists.

2d. The question of the right of a State to secede from the Union has been decided by arms, and that decision should be accepted as final and conclusive.

3d. Nevertheless, while the Constitution makes the Federal Government supreme, it is so only with well defined limitations and restrictions, leaving the States large rights and powers over their domestic concerns, and making them co-equal in respect of such rights: and these rights have not been impaired by the result of the war, or the powers of the General Government aggrandized by it, to the endangerment of public liberty.

4th. The extinguishment of African Slavery is recognized as a fact, ratified by a binding Constitutional Amendment.

5th. The investiture of negroes with the right of suffrage, by the Congress of the United States, and the disfranchisement of white men, by the same authority, is a gross usurpation of power, and a policy unjust, unwise and oppressive, and tending to excite a war of races: the white men of America are entitled to superiority and supremacy in the administration of the Federal and State governments; and any measure intended to deprive them of it, or to divide or impair it, greatly endangers the perpetuity of free republican institutions.

6th. The faith of the nation is pledged to the payment of the National debt, according to the terms of the laws under which the bonds were issued, and not otherwise. The time of payment of the bonds ought not to be extended; the principal of the five-twenty bonds ought to be paid in currency, and the money granted to the National banks to be withdrawn.

7th. The Government bonds should be taxed in the hands of the bondholders, equally with other property.

8th. The doctrines and practices of the Radical party, which endeavours, by encroaching upon the powers of the Executive and Judicial branches of the Government, to absorb in the Legislative Department all powers, tend to the destruction of the Republican system of Government and the civil liberties of the people.

9th. Equal and exact justice to all men, of whatever State or persuasion, religious or political; peace, commerce and honest friendship with all nations; entangling alliances with none; the support of the State Governments in all their rights, as the most competent administration of our domestic concerns and the surest bulwark against anti-Republican tendencies; the preservation of the General Government in its whole constitutional vigor, as the sheet anchor of peace at home and safety abroad; a jealous care of the rights of election by the people and the supremacy of the civil over the military authority.

10th. Andrew Johnson the first choice of the Democracy of Tennessee; but their Delegates left free to unite in selecting another as the candidate for the Presidency.

We place at the head of our columns, condensed into propositions, the Declaration of Principles, adopted by the Convention of Conservatives at Nashville.

If we had been a member of the Convention, we should have voted against the first proposition. We do not assent to it now, and we never shall. We have spoken on the subject too often, to need to repeat our reasons now, further than to say, that in a country governed by a written Constitution, force and conquest cannot decide any thing in respect to Constitutional rights; and that, if a Court were now to be called on to construe any particular portion of the Constitution, affecting the rights or concerning the relations of the States, it would have the same rules of construction and no others, by which to be guided, as before the war. The Constitution means now, just what it meant then: and the Judge who should deliberately affirm that force and arms had made its meaning other than it was at the beginning, in regard to the rights of the parties to it, would win eternal dishonour.

For us, the Constitution will always be a compact between the States, to which they only are parties, and not a supreme law enacted for the government of the States as well as individuals, by the one people of all. For us, it will always remain true, that what are styled grants, prohibitions, restrictions, etc., in the Constitution, are agreements and promises by the States, obligatory as such and not as the mandates of the will of the one people of the whole.

And we believe that the dangers of the contrary theory and of consolidation and centralization are so great and are becoming so manifest in the usurpations of practice and ever-enlarging evil precedents, that within ten years the theory which we religiously believe to be true, will command the assent of a large majority of the white people of the United States; and that the sovereignty and equality of the States will be every where regarded as the only securities for the continuance of republican government.

We should also have objected to the residue of the Declaration of Principles on this point (which we have made the second proposition), because it is illogical to say that arms and force can destroy one right or decide that it does not and never did exist, and that they cannot in fact annul others. If the result of the war could not only annul the right to secede for the future, but make it not to have existed in the past, it could also annul the equality of the States in the Union, and deprive part of them of the right of determining by whom the right of suffrage shall be exercised.

We do not agree that there is any binding constitutional amendment, duly ratified, that has extinguished slavery. We have always held that the Constitution never intended to give three-fourths of the States the power to destroy slavery in the others, by a Constitutional amendment. The Union would never have been formed, if such a power had been conceded by the Constitution.

But slavery is abolished, and there will never be a serious attempt or intention to restore it. The question of Constitutional power to abolish it therefore becomes unimportant, except so far as it involves the general question of the power of amendment of the Constitution. There must in the nature of things be some limit to that power: and the time will come when it will be necessary, perhaps, for the great States to protest against amendments imposed upon them by combinations among the new and small States, injurious to their welfare, and depriving them of their just weight and influence in the Government. Especially this will be so, if such amendments are adopted by the votes of negroes in the Southern States.

And, as to the settlement of the other question by the war, we are certainly very far from that extraordinary presumption which should expect all other opinions to yield to one's own, upon questions either of right or expediency. The representatives of the Conservative men of Tennessee have taken counsel together and decided what principles they will inscribe on their banners. We should have wished that some things should be otherwise. Personally, we retain our own opinions, and shall continue freely to express them. With the exceptions which we have mentioned we find nothing in the platform from which to dissent; and if we did, as we had the opportunity offered us to be present in the Convention if we pleased, and to participate in its deliberations, we should do no more than simply state our opinion, and cordially co-operate with our Conservative brethren in their labours for the salvation of the country.

It is reported by the friends of Senator Grimes that it is his intention to enter suits against the New York Tribune and the Cincinnati Gazette for libel. The suit against the former will be founded upon a charge in the Tribune that he voted for the acquittal of the President under corrupt influences; and the latter on the charge that he was guilty of corruption while Chairman of the Senate Committee on Naval Affairs, during and since the late war.—Balt. Commercial, 8th.

We are not ordinarily, an apologist, much less an advocate, for bringing to judgment newspapers for personal aspersions, although we endeavor to steer clear of such "salt and pepper and other condiments" of journalism, ourselves. Yet the Tribune has been so altogether regardless of the rights and prerogatives of others, and has resorted to such low and scabby devices to deter, alarm, or inspire those with fear who could be so imposed upon, by every mean and miserable pretext, that it is not amiss, under the circumstances, it should be made to feel that it is not immaculate, but may be held responsible for its vile imputations and assaults on personal character. The "Greeley" of former times may have been the same Greeley that incubates the diatribes of the Tribune now, but the character of the Christian gentleman, the expert statistician, the believer in the philosophy of truth, is lost in the political wrangler, the defamer of character, the patron of the robber and charlatan, the avant courrier of the mercenary schemer, the brother-in-arms of the political brigand, the tool of an infamous party, and of his own ambition to lead it.

The following letter was left for publication on Thursday evening, but was unavoidably crowded out:

MEMPHIS, TENN., June 11, 1868.

Editors Memphis Appeal:

I must ask room in your columns to correct a misstatement of facts made by to-day's Ledger, relative to the conduct of Hon. Edmund Cooper, President of the late State Convention, at Nashville. The Ledger says:

"The resolutions of the Convention having thus passed in the first instance, amendment of the Johnson resolution was cut off by the casting vote of the President of the Convention, who thus virtually represented a ninth congressional district. And we trust they will not regard themselves as instructed by the casting vote, which Mr. Cooper had no more right to give in such a case as to the most material issue before the Convention than Gov. Foote had, or any other member present."

The facts are these: The motion to lay the motion to reconsider on the table was lost by a tie vote, and the motion to reconsider was then lost by a vote of five to three, Col. Cooper not voting in either instance, and thus not subject to the unjust criticism of "unparliamentary manipulations."

This statement would be verified by any one present, competent to note results of parliamentary proceedings; but this is not necessary, for the Ledger contradicts itself by first saying the vote was "five to three," and in the very next sentence charges Col. Cooper with having decided it by his single vote.

In another column the Ledger says:

"The following is the resolution of the State Convention complimentary to President Johnson. It was adopted by common consent, except the following words, not really adopted at all, viz: 'And in the event his name should be offered to the National Nominating Convention, it is due that the representatives of his own State should cast a united vote in his favor.' On this there was a tie vote by districts. We will publish all the resolutions to-morrow."

And again the facts are not as stated, for the sentence above quoted was a part of the resolution which was unanimously adopted by the Committee on Resolutions, and by the Convention with a few dissenting voices, and subsequently by votes against reconsidering this vote, of five to three—this last vote being taken by Congressional Districts.

No vote was taken on this resolution except as a whole, including the sentance pledging a united vote in his favor, and the two articles in the Ledger, which on analysis, are self-contradicting, are plainly weak efforts to break the force of this pledge, even going far enough to do a gross injustice to Col. Cooper, who, whether in a private capacity, or as President of the State Convention, is a gentleman far above reproach.

Yours very respectfully, etc.,
JOHN W. LEFTWICH,
Of the Committee on Resolutions.

MEMPHIS, June 12, 1868.

Editors Memphis Appeal:

Regretting the non-appearance of the above in this morning's APPEAL, but accepting as entirely satisfactory the reason therefor, it is now my additional duty to protest against the injustice done Col. Cooper in this morning's Avalanche. I do this because Col. Cooper is my friend, and is a gentleman who has not yet learned to do a dishonorable act. To arraign him thus coarsely for having, as a freeman, expressed his opinion as to the propriety of sending General Forrest as a delegate to the New York Convention, or as to the influence it would have on the Northern Democracy, I am sure meets the unqualified disapproval of General Forrest himself.

I expressed the same views to General Forrest, who received it as the frank opinion of a friend, and while in Nashville and since my return to Memphis, I have heard no other opinion, except by parties in the presence of the General; and while this opinion has been so universal, each one so speaking, including Col. Cooper, has emphatically disclaimed any objection in his own mind, but a fear that others might be influenced thereby.

In my conversation with the General on the subject, in the presence of Judge Scruggs, who had also expressed the same opinion, I frankly regretted that Northern men did not know him as we did, and hoped that he would go to the New York Convention, but not as a delegate.

One word more in regard to Col. Cooper. It was and is still the opinion of his friends, that he was made the President of the Convention to deprive Mr. Johnson of his greater influence if left an active participant in the body of the Convention; and nothing is more certain to our minds than that if he had been thus left untrammeled, the Fourth Congressional District would have made another to the five that cast their votes for the resolutions.

Yours very respectfully, etc.,
JOHN W. LEFTWICH.

ARKANSAS.

—The Madison Pioneer complains of the music made by multitudes of locusts, but thinks low-casses are much more abominable.

—The people of Madison were very much alarmed the other day at the appearance that an overflow was imminent, but the St. Francis subsided without overtopping its banks.

—The Military Commission, says the Madison Pioneer of the 6th, for the trial of Col. D. C. Cross, and perhaps others, is now in session at this place. The commission is composed of Gen. Ayres, Capt. Patterson, Lieut. Vance; Lieut. Cook, Judge Advocate. Col. Cross is present, with Col. Cameron as his attorney, and proposes to "fight it through on this line." We sincerely hope he may be acquitted of all charges, for we are convinced that they have originated in personal spite of the parties who made the charges. Query. What right has a Military Commission to try a citizen after the admission of the State into the glorious Union?

—The Des Arc Citizen of the 6th says of the crops: "A more flattering prospect we have never seen in this county than at present. Corn, cotton and wheat look as well as is possible. We hear some complaint of the rust in oats, but hope they will not be seriously injured."

—The Arkadelphia Standard of the 6th says, in speaking of "a chance for a fortune": "Our friend Potter, who has charge of the jail in this city, offers great inducements to some scientific man to make a fortune. He has four negro women and two or three negro men as boarders at his hotel, and the odor in the room is so redolent of 'nigger,' that he thinks it would require but little chemical skill to condense it into a fluid, so that it could be bottled, which could be sent North and sold to the 'nigger worshippers' of that ilk at enormous prices, as a perfume for their handkerchiefs. The balm of a thousand dead horses would be as scentless as water compared to it. Friend Potter offers to 'go snooks' with any enterprising chemist who will successfully accomplish the experiment. He thinks there is but one impediment in the way, and that is, the bottling would prove fatal to any but the most enthusiastic 'nigger worshipper.'"

—The Batesville Times says that myriads of caterpillars infest the country above that place, and are completely stripping the trees of foliage; but having done no damage to the growing crops so far. The same paper says that the corn crop looks well. Protracted rains have greatly retarded farmers in planting. A greater breadth of land has been planted in corn and wheat this year than common. Wheat looks remarkably well, and promises a fine yield.

—A Democratic county convention was to be held at Columbia on the 6th.

—The steam grist mill of Mr. Wm. Porter was burned down on the 29th ult. at Helena. Loss, $5000.

—Col. A. K. Underwood was recently thrown from his horse and badly hurt.

—Two daughters of Mr. Bishop, near Spring Creek, recently shot and killed a workman in the employ of their father. He had been foully slandering them, and they took sure and ample revenge.

—There is cheering news from Izard and Marion counties. The breadth of land planted is greater than ever before.

—The Little Rock Gazette gives the following particulars of the supposed killing of a Kuklux, but it turned out a dreadful mistake: "On Monday last, Coroner Webb held an inquest on the body of a negro woman known as Aggie Thomas. From the evidence presented to the jury, it appears that the woman in question was in the habit of going out in the cotton field to pray at night. On Monday morning, shortly after midnight, a negro man named Green Williams, living in an adjoining cabin, was giving some water to a crying child, when his attention was attracted to a white object in the field, and about sixty yards from his cabin, at which the dogs were barking. Having hailed it several times and receiving no response, he entered his cabin, seized his gun, and approaching the object, fired upon it, the gun being loaded with large shot for killing turkeys. Screams alarmed him, and in company with the woman's husband and several other negroes he approached the object and found it to be Aggie Thomas in her night clothes. The shot entered her left side, immediately below the shoulder, causing immediate death. The parties lived on the Temple plantation, six miles east of the city. Williams came to town next morning, surrendered himself to the civil authorities, making affidavit to the facts above stated. He says he supposed the object was a Kuklux or some other kind of a spirit, and he had been warned by certain parties here to be armed and prepared to shoot them. Some of the particular friends of the 'colored brethren' have caused the death of this woman."

—The Little Rock Gazette of the 10th formally espouses the cause of Gen. W. S. Hancock for the Presidency. It says: We are informed by those who claim to know, that Gen. Hancock has always been a Democrat; that is to say, what few political opinions, being a soldier, he has held have been of a Conservative character, and this during the war. His order assuming command of the Fifth District and his patriotic letter to Gov. Pease, of Texas, confirm the statement. The objection urged that he is a military man is deprived of much of its force, by knowledge of the important fact that while such and while holding dictatorial powers over two large States, he constantly proclaimed the supremacy of the civil law and asserted the right of every American citizen to enjoy the liberties of a freeman.

—Speaking of the comforts of travelers, the Little Rock Gazette of the 9th says: Visitors to the Hot Springs will find the Sumpter House a pleasant place of sojourn. Situated at the lower end of the valley and away from the bustle about the baths, it is a quiet retreat happily possessing the advantages of convenient proximity to the hot water and superior situation for enjoying the cool breezes. The house is a new one and the landlord is as clever as the day is long.

NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, June 12.—The municipal affairs of this city are in statu quo to-day.

Gen. Buchanan has received a copy of a dispatch from Grant to Packard, the Chairman of the Convention Registry Board, stating that the subject of the inauguration of a civil government for Louisiana is now pending before Congress, and advising him to issue no more proclamations or orders conflicting with those issued by the Military Commander of the District, as such action would be in violation of the reconstruction laws.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—The President to-day sent to the Senate the following nominations: Reverdy Johnson, as Minister to England; Alex. McMahon, as United States Attorney for Montana; B. J. Dickinson, as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court for Washington territory; and S. Newton Robinson, as Superintendent of Indian Affairs for the Southern Superintendency.

The letter of Commissioner Rollins, tendering his resignation to the Secretary of the Treasury, and giving his reasons therefor, was last evening returned to Mr. Rollins, with the following indorsement:

"The within communication, just handed to me, bearing date June 8th, is considered partial and incorrect in its statements and unjust and disrespectful to the President. It is, therefore, returned to Mr. Rollins.

(Signed) HUGH McCULLOCH,
Secretary of the Treasury."

Commissioner Rollins has again sent his letter of resignation to Secretary McCulloch with the following indorsement: "Unless the Honorable Secretary shall point out wherein the enclosed communication is either partial or incorrect in its statements, or unjust and disrespectful to the President, I must consider its return to me as unjustifiable, and the reasons therefor otherwise than those explained."

The Republicans voting for the exclusion of Florida in the House to-day were Broomall, Cobb, Farnsworth, Julien, Maynard, Paine, Pike, Pierce, Sawyer, Taffe and Washburne.

The Senate to-day confirmed the nomination of Reverdy Johnson as Minister to England without the formality of a reference to a committee.

CONGRESSIONAL.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—The Speaker said he had been requested to present to the House, and as the matter appeared to be national in its character, he did present, an invitation from the Executive Committee of the National American Sharpshooters, to attend a public demonstration and festival which is to take place at Jones' Woods, New York, from June 27th to July 6th.

Judd moved that the invitation would be accepted, and moved that the House be represented at the opening ceremonies by a committee of five members.

Stevens, of Pennsylvania, said he hoped it was not a very bad practice to teach people to shoot sharp.

The motion was then agreed to.

The Speaker appointed the following members to represent the House: Messrs. Judd, Garfield, Paine, Chandler and Orth.

Price introduced a bill to relieve T. Mackey, of South Carolina, from his political disabilities. Referred to the Committee on Reconstruction.

Bingham, from the Reconstruction Committee, reported back the Senate amendments to the act to admit certain States to representation in Congress, with a recommendation that the amendments be concurred in.

Bingham said he desired a speedy decision of the House on the bill, and he would therefore move the previous question, but he would first ask his colleague, Mr. Spalding, whether he desired to offer his amendment now?

Spalding—"Yes, I move to strike out Alabama from the bill."

The following is the bill in full:

An act to admit the States of North Carolina, South Carolina, Louisiana, Georgia, Alabama and Florida to representation in Congress.

WHEREAS, The people of North Carolina, South Carolina, Louisiana, Georgia, Alabama and Florida have, in pursuance of the provisions of an act entitled "an act for the more efficient government of the rebel States," passed March 22, 1867, and the acts supplemental thereto, framed Constitutions of a State government, which are Republican in form, and have adopted said Constitutions by large majorities of the voters cast at the elections held for the ratification of the same; therefore

Be it enacted, That each of the States of North Carolina, South Carolina, Louisiana, Georgia, Alabama and Florida shall be entitled and admitted to representation in Congress as a State of the Union when the Legislatures of such States shall have duly ratified the amendment to the Constitution of the United States, proposed by the 39th Congress, and known as "Article 14," upon the following fundamental conditions:

1. That the Constitutions of neither of said States shall ever be so amended or changed as to deprive any citizen or class of citizens of the United States of the right to vote in said States, who are entitled to vote by the Constitutions thereof, hereby recognized, except as a punishment for such crimes as are now felonies at law, whereof they shall be duly convicted under laws equally applicable to all the inhabitants of said States, provided any alteration of said Constitutions, prospective in effect, may be made, with regard to the time and place of residence of voters; and the State of Georgia shall only be entitled and admitted to representation upon these further fundamental conditions, that the first and third sub-divisions of section seventeen of the fifth article of the Constitution of said State, except the proviso to the first sub-division, shall be null and void; and that the General Assembly of said State, by a solemn public act, shall declare the assent of the State to the foregoing fundamental conditions.

2. That if the day fixed for the first meeting of the Legislatures of either of said States by the Constitution, or an ordinance thereof shall have passed, or so nearly arrived before the passage of this act that there shall not be time for the Legislature to assemble at the period fixed, such Legislature shall convene at the end of twenty days from the time this act shall take effect, unless the Governor elect shall sooner convene the same.

3. That the first section of this act shall take effect as to each State, except Georgia, when such State shall, by its Legislature, duly ratify article 14 of the amendment to the Constitution of the United States, proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress, and as to the State of Georgia, when it shall, in addition, give the assent of said State to the fundamental conditions herein before imposed upon the same, and thereupon the officers of each State, duly elected and qualified under the Constitutions thereof, shall be inaugurated without delay, but no person prohibited from holding office under the United States, or any State, by the section of the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States, known as article 14, shall be deemed eligible to office in either of said States, unless relieved from his disabilities as provided in said amendment; and it is hereby made the duty of the President, within ten days after receiving official information of the ratification of said amendments by the Legislature of either of said States, to issue a proclamation announcing that fact.

Spalding said in view of the fact that both branches of Congress had voted in favor of admitting Alabama, he withdrew his amendment.

After some debate the motion to exclude Florida from the "omnibus bill" was defeated, yeas 45, nays 99; and the Senate's amendments concurred in.

The bill now goes to the President for his signature.

The vote on its passage was yeas, 111; nays, 25.

By the unanimous consent of the House, and at the suggestion of the Speaker, the National Sharpshooting Committee was increased from five to seven, and Messrs. Robertson and Knott added to it.

Schenck, at the suggestion of Robertson, reported from the Ways and Means Committee a joint resolution remitting the duties on certain articles contributed to the National Association of Sharpshooters to an amount not exceeding $10,000, which was passed.

SENATE.

Morton, from the Committee on Foreign Affairs, reported a joint resolution requesting the President to intercede with the Queen of Great Britain to secure the speedy discharge of Rev. John McMahon, convicted of treason and felony, and now confined at Kingston, C. W., which was passed.

Harlan, from the Committee on the District of Columbia, reported with an amendment the bill to regulate the contested election in Washington, and urged its immediate consideration.

Hendricks objected and the bill went over.

Edmonds introduced a bill in addition to the act to regulate the time and manner of holding elections for Senators in Congress.

Hendricks, from the Committee on Public Lands, reported a bill to aid in the construction of a ship canal between the Mississippi and Lake Michigan.

Conness called up the bill in relation to the Western Railroad Company. It allows the company to occupy for a depot, storehouse, etc., such portions of Yerba Buia or Government Island, in the Bay of San Francisco, as may be necessary. After some discussion it was laid aside.

At the expiration of the morning hour, and on the motion of Sherman, the bill supplementary to an act to provide a national currency, reserved by a pledge of United States bonds, and to provide for the circulation thereof, approved June 3 1, 1864, was taken up. The question was on the amendment by the Finance Committee.

The first amendment was adopted, making the limitation restricting the liabilities of individuals, companies, etc., for money borrowed of the National Banking Association, applicable to deposits made by such Association with private bankers, brokers or banking associations not included under the national currency act.

The second amendment provides that within ninety days after notice of a note to be liquidated by the shareholders of the National Banking Association, it shall pay the amount of its outstanding notes into the United States Treasury, and take up its bonds; otherwise they are to be sold at public auction in New York, and the surplus to be paid to the officers. Associations already in liquidation under such circumstances are to pay it over in thirty days under the same penalty, and the notes are to be redeemed at the United States Treasury, and the Associations to be discharged from their liabilities.

It was amended, on the motion of Howard, by making the auction at the Stock Exchange, and adopted.

The third amendment provides for a compensation to Receivers of National Banking Associations of 3 per cent. on the first $100,000, 1 per cent. on larger sums not exceeding $500,000, and one half of 1 per cent. on sums over $500,000; the Collectors to be paid out of the receipts from the assets, one-half of the commissions to be withheld, at the discretion of the Comptroller, until the affairs of the bank are closed, and such receivers are to be considered Government agents, and having the right to bring suits in United States courts; the District Judge fixing the fees for such receivers.

Cameron moved to reduce the per centage named from three per cent. on $100,000 to two per cent; from one per cent. on sums under $500,000 to one-half of one per cent.; and from one-half of one per cent. on sums exceeding $500,000 to one-fourth of one per cent.

It was supported by Conkling, and opposed by Sherman, Cattell, Williams and Morton, and adopted by a vote of 23 to 19.

Ferry moved to amend by inserting after the provision authorizing the Receivers to bring suits, the words, "and may invest the assets of the bank, in their hands, in bonds of the United States, while the affairs of the bank are not in liquidation, which bonds shall be deposited with the Treasurer of the United States, subject to the order of the Comptroller of Currency, and the Receivers shall also make a report to the Comptroller of all their acts and proceedings, and the Comptroller shall be authorized to sell such bonds from time to time, in order to make the dividends and payments provided in the 15th section of the act to which this act is supplementary."

The amendment was agreed to, and the section, as amended, also agreed to.

On the last amendment, to increase the national currency circulation by the sum of $20,000,000, to be confined to the States and Territories having a circulation of less than $5 00 to each inhabitant, Wilson moved to amend by inserting the following—"the sum of $100,000,000," and in issuing the said circulating notes, the preference shall be given to the banking associations in the States and sections of the country not adequately supplied with banking facilities; but whenever the amount of United States notes and circulating notes of the National Banks combined shall be in excess of $650,000,000, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and required to retire and cancel the United States notes to the extent of such excess until the whole amount of United States notes outstanding shall be reduced to $250,000,000; and that for the purpose of facilitating the resumption of specie payment, the interest received by each Banking Association on their issues or the bonds deposited with the Treasurer of the United States by such Banking Association, shall be held as a reserve fund, until said Banking Association shall redeem in coin the currency issued by it, and the said specie reserve fund shall be used for no other purpose than for the redemption of said currency.

Morrill of Vermont, opposed it, and moved to add a proviso that the Secretary of the Treasury shall be authorized to withdraw an equal amount of United States notes. A long discussion followed.

SUMMER RESORT.

Ransdall House,
Madison, Wisconsin,
B. JEFFERSON, : PROPRIETOR.

THIS is a new and thoroughly modern Hotel in every particular. Madison is very justly termed by Bayard Taylor the Eden City of the West. Situated as it is in the immediate vicinity of four beautiful little inland lakes, which abound in the various varieties of fresh water fish, and whose surface is dotted with little steam and sail vessels, devoted entirely to purposes of pleasure, whose monotonous pebbly beaches are occasionally interspersed by its mossy boulders, overshadowed by heavy foliage, and from whose outer borders are opened the broad prairies for which the West is so noted—the wild game which affords such lively sporting amusement from earliest autumn. Madison is distant 130 miles northwest from Chicago, and can be reached in 3½ hours from Memphis (all rail), and with only two changes of cars (Cairo and Chicago). Its adjacency to Memphis, its salubrious atmosphere, and, in a word, the economy, recommends it to families in this vicinity. Parties can send their families to remain during the heated term at a fourth less in cost as compared to Saratoga and other eastern resorts. mail 2ws

—W. Y. Cirode, Esq., Assignee, gives notice of being appointed Assignee of Giles & Randolph, David Wolff and David Bryson.

—The firm of Taylor, Cole & Co., give notice of their dissolution, Mr. Cole withdrawing.

—The Atkin House, at Knoxville, is now open to the public. See card of Acton Young, Esq., proprietor.

—See the advertisement of Messrs. Taylor, Radford & Co., successors to Taylor, Cole & Co., cotton factors, No. 11 Monroe street.

—Royster, Trezevant & Co. advertise choice property for sale.

THE Memphis Medical Society held their weekly meeting yesterday afternoon.

UNDERTAKER—We call attention to the card of Owen Smith, Undertaker, No. 368 Second street, corner of Gayoso. He is prepared to fill all orders in his line at the shortest notice.

THE STEREOPTICON.—Messrs. Sullivan and Collins have been having quite a success with their stereopticon at the State Female College. We are informed that a large and brilliant assembly greeted their last appearance on Thursday evening, and seemed to enjoy both the lecture and recitation.

PERSONAL.—We were pleased yesterday to greet our young friend and fellow-townsman Emmet Hughes, who has just returned from a business tour North. Among the Northern cities included in his tour was the great "Hub of the Universe," where, he says, they treated him as if he never had rebelled against the "best Government the world ever saw."

ALL ABOUT A PUP.—Two well known citizens and former intimate friends, had a "falling out" a day or two since, about a "black-and-tan" terrier, which one accused the other of stealing. The accused party has instituted, or is about to institute a libel suit against the accuser, laying the damage to his wounded reputation at the modest little sum of fifty thousand dollars.

BISHOP ANDREW, Bishop McTyiere, and Dr. Green, of Nashville, will deliver addresses to the Sunday School Convention, to be held in the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Poplar and Second streets, to-morrow (Sunday,) at 3½ p.m. Appropriate singing by the children of the different Methodist Episcopal churches. A cordial invitation extended to all.

THE TOURNAMENT.—Everything progresses finely. The little breeze that caused the dabbling in printer's ink has not set it back a particle. A grand affair may be confidently anticipated. Tickets may be had at the hotels, the principal jewelry stores, and at the office of Capt. George Mellersh. The Knights are caparisoning in gallant style, and the coming week will be devoted to exercise and drill. There need be no fear of disappointment. With the gentlemen who have it in hand, "there is no such word as fail." We shall take occasion, in a day or two, to describe the preparations that are rapidly being completed.

THE VARIETIES.—Charlie Broom's temple of mirth continues still to draw nightly crowds of pleasure seekers. As Mrs. Malaprop says, 'comparisons are odorous,' where so much beauty and talent are, it is invidious to make a distinction by mentioning any one who pleases the public more than another. Indeed one who admires good singing and fine dancing, would be hypercritical did he not go away satisfied after spending an hour at the Varieties, listening to the sweet ballads of the Misses Florence, Miss Gray, the Gardner Sisters, or Mlle Henriette, or watching their airy elegance in the dance. Nor do the ladies usurp all the attention, Charlie White, Charlie Howard and Johnnie Reese, having their own crowds of admirers and friends.

Bill Heads Printed at the Lowest Prices at the Appeal Job Office.

CURIOUS SELL.—We were told yesterday of a ludicrous and curious trick played off the day before, on a well known feed merchant whose place of business will be nameless. During the morning of Thursday a very neatly dressed and handsome young lady went to the various Main street dry goods stores and purchased from each of them a dress pattern, and ordered the bundle to be sent, along with the bill, at a certain house up to No. — blank street. At the specified time a dozen or so dry goods clerks and errand boys presented themselves at the counting room with their bundles and bills. The first one or two that came, received civil answers, and were told that probably they had mistaken the place; but as porter after porter, each with a bill for muslin and calico, or silks and hose, came in and insisted on leaving their packages and taking away the cash therefor, our friend lost his temper and began to do some tall swearing. At the last accounts the boys still besieged his establishment, and he had called in the aid of a policeman to drive them away.

EYES SORE FOR FIVE YEARS.—This certifies that my eyes have been sore and my sight lost for four or five years; was treated by some half dozen physicians and oculists; was induced to try Dr. C. B. Norris, oculist, at No. 59 Madison street, and after five weeks' treatment, can now read the newspapers, and am able to go to my work and other duties as usual. I recommend Dr. Norris, with all my heart, as a most excellent Eye Surgeon and gentleman.

DEATH OF CAPT. PERRY.

Preliminary Examination of the Murderers.

The shooting affray which occurred on the morning of June 4th, between a detachment of the police under Capt. Perry, of the Second District, and a party of negro burglars, and its bloody termination, is still fresh in the minds of the public, familiar though we be with dark and frightful deeds of murder and violence.

Capt. Perry, it will be remembered, was desperately wounded in the affair, and from day to day the public have been informed of his condition through the papers. Although from the very first it was thought that he had received his death wound, from the fact of his lingering so long, and several times apparently rallying, the more sanguine of his friends and relatives entertained hopes that he might possibly recover. But all the skill of the leech, all the devoted watchfulness, the hopes and prayers of an agonized and loving wife, all the aid and nursing of his friends, could not keep the spirit in the wounded and lacerated body, and yesterday at a quarter to two o'clock, death came and relieved him from his terrible suffering.

As soon as it was known that the Captain was dead, the four negroes who were captured on that bloody night, (one of whom was severely wounded before being taken), were removed from the station house, where they have since lain, and heavily guarded, were carried before Justice Griffith. 'Squire Miller appeared as prosecutor, and was ready to proceed with the case, but at the request of the accused, the examination was postponed till Tuesday morning at ten o'clock. The prisoners were removed under a heavy escort to the county jail, where they now are, under charge of murder.

We took occasion, in a former account of this unfortunate and terrible affair, to speak of Capt. Perry's worth as a man and an officer, and we cannot refrain from now reiterating the sentiments then expressed. As a man, he was honest and true, and beloved by all who knew him; and as an officer, he had no superior—brave to rashness, and incorruptible. He was a native of Pennsylvania, but had been in this city several years, eight of which were spent on the police, among whom there is a deep and earnest feeling against the murderers. His age was about thirty-five, and he leaves a wife and helpless family in very straightened circumstances. He will be buried this evening at 5 o'clock.

THE NEW HOTEL.—The well-known host of the late Gayoso House, whose name we need hardly mention to citizen or traveler, is to be the lessee and host of the new Hotel, the De Soto, to be opened in the building known as the Brinkley Block, on Main street, between Madison and Monroe. For that purpose the spacious building is to be entirely remodelled, tenants are vacating it, and the Architect is already engaged. It will be opened, we understand, by the first of November. That Col. Cockrell superintends all the arrangements and details, and furnishes the building according to his taste, is a sufficient guarantee that it will be at all points perfect.

The locality of the De Soto is an excellent one, and the urbanity and hospitality of the generous and experienced host, who will make the comfort of his guests his constant care, cannot but bring prosperous fortunes to the House. It is but a trite phrase to say that we wish it and him success. We are prompted to say much more, in praise and good wishes for one who so eminently deserves success; but it is not needed, in a community where he is so well known.

The Tournanient vs. John Donovan.

In the APPEAL of Thursday morning last Mr. Donovan publishes a card to justify his course in reference to the forthcoming Tournament, in which he makes some very grave mistakes. Dr. Wilkerson and myself did have an interview with him as President of the Race Course, to see on what terms he would let us have the use of it for the Tournament. So far he is correct, but in no other particular.

His first charge was $500, but being informed by us that it was let last year for $400, he said he would take that sum but no less. He demanded an order on the Treasurer for that amount, and on being asked what he would do with it if it should prove a rainy day and no Tournament be held, he replied that he would hold the committee personally liable.

This was a mere preliminary conversation with him, and no contract was ever made. The statement that "Mr. Stewart then stated he would accept the terms and would call next day," is untrue.

His liberal offer to give $200 to the Memphis Association (not to the widows and orphans) comes rather late.

With all the privileges of vending liquors, ice creams, eatables, etc., he and his Association could have well afforded to have given the course free, and even then we would have been at considerable expense in preparing additional seats, etc. He would, we have no doubt, be exceedingly glad now to abate his charge $200, to secure the holding of the Tournament at his course, but then he treated the committee with great indifference, and as if he believed we could not have a Tournament anywhere else.

Mr. McGuire, with the liberality of a Southern gentleman, has given to the cause which he did not desert, the use of the Central Park, free of charge, and has agreed to erect the seats at his own expense. We are obliged to Mr. Donovan for his eleventh hour offer, but we have no further use for him or his Race Course.

The result of the whole matter is that by refusing Mr. Donovan's terms a park is secured, with ampitheater and seats, without cost, and thereby a saving of $500 or $600 to the widows' and orphans' fund.

POLICE ITEMS.

—The book-keeper of Petit & Co., No. 15 Union street, had occasion to leave his office for a few minutes on Thursday, and when he returned, found a man trying to open his cash-drawer with a false key. A policeman was called and the would-be burglar was arrested. On being carried before 'Squire Griffith, he gave his name as John Wilhelm. Not being able to account satisfactorily to the 'Squire for the awkward predicament in which he was caught, he was sent up to the criminal court in default of $2000 bond.

—Some rogue with a sweet tooth stole four beehives, full of honey, from No. 468 Shelby street, a day or two ago.

—A stranger, whose name we suppress at the request of a friend, was arrested on the streets in a helplessly drunken condition, by Serg't Brown of the First District Police, on Thursday night. On his person were several hundred dollars in greenbacks, which it is a wonder some enterprising mackerel had not lightened him of. He yesterday paid the city ten dollars and costs for taking care of it.

—James S. Hudnell, who shot the negro Fred Farris, at or near the State line on Pigeon Roost road, on Tuesday last, had yesterday his preliminary examination before 'Squire Griffith. The witnesses for the State were all heard, but one or two for the defense being unavoidably absent, the further hearing of the case is postponed till Monday, 15th inst., at 11 o'clock.

—The examination of Sol and Gilbert Fenner (both colored), for murdering Lloyd Brown, their brother-in-law, on Monday last, was yesterday continued before 'Squire Millard. The evidence fixed the murder on Gilbert beyond a doubt. The case was continued till today for further testimony.

—Julia Washington, a darkey, was yesterday sent up by 'Squire Walton, in default of $2000, on charge of perjury.

—Col. Beaumont promised us the other day that he would make a raid on the idle and vagabond negroes that loaf around the justice courts. There are at least a hundred that seem to have no other occupation than hanging round the stairs leading to the offices of 'Squires Black and Walton, and crowding in to listen to every case that comes up before these gentlemen. It is a great nuisance, and should be abated.

RIVER MATTERS.

WEATHER AND RIVERS.

Weather clear and pleasant. The river at this point is rising very slowly—not over one inch in twenty-four hours. The total rise to this writing will amount probably to four inches. At Cairo the Ohio is rising about six inches in twenty-four hours, but it is falling above, as will be seen by our dispatches in another column. The Upper Mississippi and Missouri are falling. The rise at this point will not, we think, exceed three or four feet, if it reaches that. The Arkansas is low, but the channel is cutting out. There is less than three feet to the Rock, and twenty-six inches to Fort Smith. White river is falling steadily, but with plenty water to Jacksonport.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The towboats Simpson, Hornet, Stella, Dick Fulton and Argosy all passed down yesterday with tows.

The United States mail packet Liberty, Capt Jim Rice, came in yesterday with a big passenger trip, and leaves today at 5 p.m. for all points on White river, connecting at DeVall's Bluff with the Little Rock train. Harry and Shape are her secretaries, and are both exemplary young officers.

The fine steamer Julia, Capt. Lockhart, leaves for Vicksburg and way points to-day, carrying the United States mail. Capt. Isaacs, a well known clerk and very popular gentlemen in these parts, has charge of her office.

The Indiana, Capt. Rube Neal, passes down for New Orleans this morning. She is a safe boat and well officered.

The W. A. Caldwell, Capt. Rube Haynes, with Jack Chambers and Ed. Mitchell in the office, leaves on Monday for Fort Smith and way points on the Arkansas.

The gallant Belle St. Louis, Capt. Zeigler, with the infant phenomenon Ad Storm at the desk, backs out at 6 p.m. to-day for Cairo and St. Louis, connecting with the Northern Line for St. Paul.

The R. E. Lee passed down about two o'clock yesterday morning. She was aground twenty-four hours at Plumb Point.

The Darling left Cincinnati for this port last evening.

The A. & M. S. S. Company are about to build a mammoth packet for the St. Louis and New Orleans trade to carry grain in bulk. Her dimensions will be found in our telegraphic columns.

The Carolina, bound from New Orleans to Fort Smith, could not get over the bar at Morris' Rocks and had to reship. She went out of the river loaded with cotton seed for New Orleans.

The Caldwell brought in some lumber from the wreck of the Centralia.

The steamers Quickstep and Sallie arrived at St. Louis from the mountains on Wednesday. The former made the round trip in 58 days.

McCoole and Coburn have recently been treated to a bath in the pacific waters of the Ohio. They are supposed to have needed it.

Mike Keef, who was formerly mate of the Starlight, recently burned at New Orleans, was arrested at St. Louis on the 9th, on a requisition from the Governor of Louisiana, in which he is charged with setting fire to that boat. He is now on his way South.

The Underwriter is working at the Champion in the Ohio river. It will be some time before she raises the sunken boat as she gets three hundred dollars a day.

The fight between the boats and barges at St. Louis continues in all its fierceness, both taking flour to New Orleans at twenty cents per barrel. The Barge Company, it is reported, have telegraphed to New Orleans for their agent to contract, at any price, for all the cattle coming up the river, hoping thus to beat the boats on their up trips. Steamboat men seem determined to test the matter, and will never again allow any discrimination in the rates.

The Mountain boats are returning to St. Louis daily. Not less than twenty will arrive within as many days.

The W. R. Arthur left New Orleans on Wednesday, crowded with German deckers. She takes 1000 head of cattle at Hogs' Point.

From the New Orleans Times we take the following extract:

The prices of freight on cattle going West has, within the past week, had an upward tendency. The last figures, we learn, is $7 and $8 per head, and doubtless ere the end of the current week, it will have reached the sum of $10. Now is the time for our river friends to make hay while the sun shines, and that the sun does shine (and warm at that) there can be no question.

The Red river trade is going down and growing beautifully less every day. There are at present in the Red river trade about six boats, and from all appearances each trip, as they depart and arrive, we cannot see that any of them are making any money, especially when it is taken into consideration that the Red river rates of freight have been reduced, and that at present boats take freight at a mere cypher when compared with that of former rates. If a boat could not make money at the rates of a week ago, the question now is, what can they do at the present ruinous rates? Our Red river friends, we fear, have broken the rates of freight in the wrong season of the year, and the sooner they can come to some understanding about their own welfare, the better it will be; if they do not, they will be forced to lay up. However, we shall see what we shall see.

The Mobilians are talking of the opening of Bayou Manchac. This looks well on paper

NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTE.

GROVESTEEN & CO.,

499 Broadway, N. Y.,

THESE instruments, after the most flattering testimonials from the first Pianists in the country, who, at our solicitation, have tested them in the severest manner possible, have been pronounced THE FINEST SQUARE PIANO-FORTE MADE IN THE WORLD.

It has always been our policy, during the thirty-six years that we have manufactured Pianos, twelve thousand of which are now in use in the United States and Europe, to give the finest instrument at the lowest cost. Our superior facilities enable us to offer them from one to three hundred dollars less than any other First Class House.

The tone of these instruments are remarkable for its peculiar Sweetness, and Great Brilliancy, never losing their quality when forced to their utmost capacity. The lower register having its positiveness, does not destroy the middle and upper registers by mingling with them in disagreeable confusion, the refined beauty of tone being equally delightful to the unpracticed and to the most cultivated ear.

They are an entirely new style of Piano, established in the most perfect manner, with four full round corners front and back, heavily carved legs and Lyre Serpentine Base finely moulded, and each instrument is fully warranted for five years. sep6 d&wly

THE NATIONAL

COMPANY.

A new enterprise, to be known as the National Telegraph Company, has been organized with valuable franchises conferred by a recent act of Congress for the purpose of establishing Trunk Lines of Telegraphs on all the principal railroads and mail routes in the United States. The stock is to be issued upon the same principle as that of the Merchant's Union Express Company, which recently commenced operations. The design is to interest the entire business community in the enterprise. This is done, not so much to dispose of the stock as it is to secure the business of the country through which the lines pass.

The Capital is to be

$10,000,000,

In 100,000 Shares, of the par value of

$100 PER SHARE,

But the actual amount to be paid in cash is

$35 Per Share,

And this amount is to be paid as follows: One per cent. of the par at the time of subscribing, and no more, until the entire capital has been subscribed, and then on calls to be made by the Board of Directors; instalments not to exceed five per cent. per month. When thirty-five per cent. of the par value of the shares has been paid, certificates of stock will be issued This will give the company a paid up

CASH CAPITAL OF $3,500,000,

Which will be sufficient to duplicate lines to all or nearly all the paying points reached by the present monopoly.

The present Telegraph Companies of the country have been consolidated into one huge monopoly, and are now earning over SIX MILLIONS OF DOLLARS per year, or over one hundred per cent. on the actual cost of their lines, their present capital having been watered over ONE THOUSAND per cent.

THE NATIONAL TELEGRAPH COMPANY have a recognition from the United States Government of the importance of their enterprise, with a grant of the most valuable franchises ever conferred upon a telegraph company. No competing line has ever had the right now granted by Congress to this company to construct and operate lines over every RAILROAD and MAIL ROUTE in the United States. The position of this company differs from that of any company ever before organized. The question of the RIGHT OF WAY IS FOREVER SETTLED.

The stockholders of this company cannot be sold out or TRANSFERRED to any other company. The act of Congress under which this company has been organized, prohibits any transfer of the franchises granted.

CALLS---HOW TO BE MADE.

One per cent. of the Stock will be required on subscribing, and subsequent calls, not to exceed five per cent. per month, will be made by the Board of Directors, from time to time, as may be necessary, to supply funds to construct and equip the lines; but no calls will be made after the one per cent is paid, until the ENTIRE CAPITAL STOCK shall have been subscribed.

ACTUAL CAPITAL REQUIRED

The Company confidently believe that thirty-five per cent. of the Capital Stock will construct and fully equip

25,000 MILES OF WIRE,

Which will connect all the commercial cente and important places in the United States. This opinion is made upon the most reliable estimates and responsible offers to construct and equip the lines.

The National Telegraph Company is organized under the Laws of the State of New York and franchises conferred by an act of Congress, approved July 24, 1866.

MEMPHIS APPEAL

BY TELEGRAPH.

Noon Dispatches.

NEW YORK, June 12.—Chilian advices state that the frontier is being fortified, and that twenty-five Chilian soldiers had been massacred by the Indians.

St. Domingo dates of May 30th, state that the revolution is steadily gaining ground, and Salnave found himself cooped in his capital, and abandoned by Minister DeLorme, who escaped to England. Incendiary fires are very frequent, and the foreigners attribute them to the President's vindictiveness, as he has repeatedly threatened to burn the town rather than allow the rebels to have possession of it. Ex-President Cabral had reached Jacmel, and was actively supporting the rebel cause.

The Tribune states that O. N. Cutler, who is mentioned as the successor to Commissioner Rollins, was present at the interview of Senator Henderson with the Missouri delegation, when he made the following remarks: "Gentlemen, will it not be a great deal better for the Republican party if the President should be acquitted and a new Cabinet appointed, composed entirely of Radicals; and that Senator Henderson have the control of the Federal patronage of Missouri?" To these propositions several members of the delegation replied that it was impracticable. Senators Henderson and Cutler rejoined, simultaneously, that it could be done. This is sworn to by several persons. Cutler was formerly a cotton agent by the appointment of Fessenden.

The Tribune says bids for carrying the overland mails were opened yesterday, by which it appears that Wells, Fargo & Co., who have been the contractors for the last four years, have lost all the contracts, they being the highest bidders.

BOSTON, June 12.—The House passed the bill to erect a bridge to connect this city with East Boston over the Governor's veto.

The appropriations of the Massachusetts Legislature for the present session, including $5,000,000 for the Hoosick tunnel, amount to $8,617,000.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL, MEMPHIS, June 12, 1868.

This has been another quiet day in local finances. The demand for money is much less than might reasonably be expected at this season of the year, but it is a gratifying fact and proves that our business men have confined their operations within such limits as could be compassed without assistance from outside sources. A much healthier state of affairs exists than did at the same time last year, when failures were the order of the day and few were above suspicion. Exchange is more abundant, but rates are the same, with no increased demand from any source.

Gold opened in New York to-day at 140, and tended upwards, closing at 140¼. New Tennessee bonds were quoted in New York to-day at 72⅝; Old, do., 73⅛. Coupons of '81, 16½; do. '62, 11½; do. '64, 9⅜; do, '65, 9⅜; New Issue, 12⅛; do. of '67, 12⅜; 10-40s, with coupons attached, 5⅜; 7-30's, 21 and 3d series, 7⅛. The buying rate of Gold in this market during the day was 138½ to 139; selling at 140.

The new City Bonds have not yet been received from the engraver's hands, but as soon as they arrive they will be filled out and issued to such Scrip holders as prefer them. Scrip is in demand, with little on the market. Holders are asking 77 to 80, while brokers are offering but 75. While on the subject of Scrip and Bonds we would again respectfully call the attention of the Mayor and Finance Committee to the many claims against the city, which have not been acted upon, and which should be paid. We were assured by Mr. McDavitt some months ago that these claims would meet prompt attention if we would "only wait." Holders of these claims have waited, and we learn can get no satisfaction whatever about the matter on application to our authorities. While we rejoice to see the city credit gaining ground every day, we reiterate our regret that it should be so at the expense of individuals who sold the city merchandise at cash prices, and which by special contract was to be paid for in cash, but is yet unsettled for even by due-bill, though more than a year has intervened since the purchase. It would be unkind, perhaps, to suggest to the Board that the fat horses which draw our engines, and themselves, semi-occasionally in the city ambulance, were made fat and retained in that condition upon corn—not the property of the city; that the oats and hay those horses devoured many months ago, was as deliberately taken from private cribs as ever a Federal squadron rifled a widow's storehouse. We hope that some action will be taken in this matter, for it occurs to us, at this time, when confidence is unquestionably strengthening, and the city finances have improved so materially, a due regard for the city's credit should lead to an early cancellation of just debts that have been held in abeyance until the lapse of months might almost sweep them off amid the wrecks of the past, that are unrecognizable, if not venerable, from very age.

County Warrants are dull at 60c buying; selling at 63 to 65c.

Police Scrip is dull at 80 to 82c buying; selling at 85 to 86c.

Cotton in Liverpool at the opening today was dull. Uplands, 11d; Orleans, 11¾d. At noon the market was unchanged, and at the close was heavy and lower. Uplands, 10½ to 11d; Orleans, 11¼ to 11¾d. Sales 5000 bales. Week's sales, 46,000 bales. To speculators, 7000 bales. For export, 2000. Stock, 679,000 bales. Of this amount 382,000 bales are American.

In New York the market at the opening was inactive and drooping. Accurate quotations could not be given. Low Middlings, nominally 27½c; Middlings, 29c; Orleans, 30½c; Good Middlings, 30½c. At noon the market was dull and nominal, and was entirely nominal at the close. Sales 500 bales.

Our market was dull, with rather less inquiry than yesterday, and only a few small sales at irregular rates, but mostly upon a basis of 27½ to 28c for Middlings.
